MERCURY

Carrier of love and sympathy
Messenger of friendship
Consoler of the lonely
Servant of the scattered family
Enlarger of the public life.

—CHARLES S. ELLIOT

DEDICATION

In appreciation for thirty-two years of outstanding service, five of which were at Durham High School, for serving as advisor to the Public Relations Committee, co-advisor to the National Honor Society, and co-advisor for our class, we, the senior class of D.H.S., dedicate the 1962 Messenger to

MRS. ESTELLE RIDENHOUR

IN MEMORIAM

RUBY MALINDA WILLIAMS

Miss Ruby Williams served Durham High School faithfully for fifteen years. She made many contributions to the school both through her teaching and her work with the students in extra-curricula activities. She organized and advised the Student Council; she sponsored the Phy-Chem Club and the Interclub Council; she established the Point System and the Student Directory. The entire school community will long benefit from the foundation Miss Williams gave the Science Department and the valued activities of today's student program.

"One short sleep past, we wake eternally
And Death shall be no more; Death, thou shalt die!"

The city of Durham and his many friends throughout the state expressed great shock and sorrow over the sudden death on February 1, 1962, of Frank L. Fuller, Durham attorney and chairman of the Durham City Board of Education since 1958.

"Mr. Fuller exemplified in the highest degree the good judgment, qualities of calm deliberation, devotion to duty, and congenial spirit so vital to effective school board leadership. The loss of his service to the board of education and to the Community is very great," stated Lew Hannen, city schools superintendent.

For many years, Mr. Frank Fuller was actively engaged in community service activities. He served as president of the Durham Chamber of Commerce, the Durham Bar Association, and the Durham County Chapter of the American Red Cross. He was one of the ablest members of the Bar Association, a scholar, and a dedicated civil servant.

PROMETHEUS

He taught the people how to farm
To sow, and plow, and reap.
He taught them how to read and write
And laws and rights to keep.

PRINCIPAL OF DURHAM HIGH SCHOOL

DR. DAN F. CAGLE

All of Durham, along with Durham High greeted a native North Carolinian, new friend, and principal July 1, as Dr. Dan F. Cagle came to Durham High, successor to Cecil E. Cooke. When Dr. Cagle arrived with his wife and two children, one of whom is a D.H.S. sophomore, he found many changes taking place and more to take place during his first year in Durham.

After graduating from Roanoke Rapids High School, Dr. Cagle found himself at the doors of Davidson College, and within four years receiving his Bachelor of Science degree in physics and Spanish with a minor in mathematics. His graduate work was spread over four universities, the University of North Carolina, Harvard, the University of Iowa, and Columbia University. From U.N.C. he obtained his Master's degree in physical education. In addition to this, he was granted his Ph.D. degree in school administration from Teacher's College, Columbia University.

Before serving the Durham community, he was associated with the school systems of Charlotte, N. C. and Jefferson, Ga.

Since Dr. Cagle moved to his new home, new outlooks have covered D.H.S. Foremost, he has gained the respect and love of all D.H.S.'ers through his kindness and consideration. From the tense moment at the first pep rally, until the close of this school year, he has taken an active part in athletic events, school programs, and various other school activities. With his concern he has seen that students enjoyed these events to the fullest extent.

Through his many little announcements made over the P.A. system, Dr. Cagle has boosted school spirit causing students to take an active part in all activities concerned.

We, the students of D.H.S., have seen him working, making changes, and now hope that we will be able to look forward to many more years with this truly dedicated man.

THE SENIOR CLASS
1962

President .... Jimmy Clark
Vice-President .... John Webb
Secretary .... Judy Pierce
Treasurer .... Clay Maulden

OFFICERS: Jimmy Clark, Clay Maulden, Judy Pierce, John Webb.

To the tune of "Pomp and Circumstance," the Durham High School class of '62 takes its last bow in the flood lights. But wait a minute! It's not the last time our praises will be sung—our accomplishments applauded.

It will be a long time before the leaders of our class are forgotten. Stan Coble continued his career of leadership as president of the Student Council. Remember Jimmy Clark and his Budget Drive slogan? John Webb, our vice-president, was always ready to help in any way he could. Judy Pierce's pencil was kept busy recording the minutes at our class meetings, and Clay Maulden took good care of our money.

Naturally the seniors proved superior in the Fall Festival activities. The lovely senior, Beth Phillips, reigned over the beauty of the festival, while a senior float capped all honors in the display category. Seniors Joe Wimberly and Jimmy Durham scored to send us to a flying 13-0 victory in the Homecoming game. The football team was led through the whole season by Woody Baldwin, senior co-captain.

The seniors were really strutting their stuff when the curtain rose on the Junior Talent Show. The big men on campus have talent plus and they proved it. There were standing ovations for the senior play, Sabrina Fair, which was presented with the polish and shine of professionals. The superior class had done it again!

To be sure there was enough money to go around, the senior class slipped in a little extra at the end of the Budget Drive. But, we pacified the sophs by letting them think they had won. This senior class lacked nothing, even sympathy for struggling sophomores!

Remember our star basketball team? Senior co-captains Jerry Woodside and Stan Coble breezed through the season piling victory upon victory.

As the year wore on we encountered some events on a more serious note. Take College Day—when the seniors made their final decisions about college. Our class proved its ability in scholarly pursuits also when sixty seniors were inducted into the National Honor Society, and fifteen members of our class, the largest number Durham High has ever had, were finalists in the National Merit Scholarship competitions. Margaret Walker, whom we are proud to claim, won the state Voice of Democracy contest.

With the year coming to a close, we ordered invitations, were measured for caps and gowns, and dreamed of feeling that diploma in our hands.

The Junior-Senior Prom brought the end a little closer. Remember dancing away under the soft lights?

It's all over now—with diploma in hand we march on to new horizons and new victories.

Loving people makes living a never ending song, softens every problem and makes friends
out of mere people.

FLORA PENNY GRESHAM
Penny

Unless we stand for something, we will fall for anything.

EMILY ELIZABETH GRIFFIN
Emily

There is but one failure, and that is not to be true to the very best one knows.

CHARLES RONALD GRIFFIN
Ronnie

It is better to have too much courtesy than too little; provided you are not equally courteous to all, for that would be injustice.

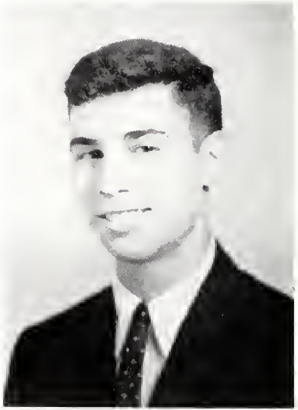
SENIORS



STEPHEN JAMES GRIFFIN

ROY ALMOND WATKINS
Roy

O that we had spent one day in this world thoroughly well.

SENIORS

BRENDA FAYE WEAVER
Brenda

Beauty is in the eye of the beholder.

LARRY DEAN WEAVER
Larry

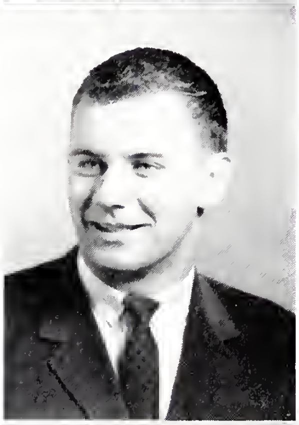
The road to learning is steep. The road to ignorance is broad. The road to success is narrow. The road to failure, naught.

LINDA JO WEAVER
Linda

A happy life must be to a great extent a quiet life, for it is only in an atmosphere of quiet that true joy can live.

JOHN GUSS WEBB
Guss

Between the idea
and the reality
Between the motion
and the act
Falls the shadow.



MARION FULLER WEBB
Marion

Give us the luxuries of life, and we will dispense with its necessities.

SUSAN VIRGINIA WELLONS
Susan

We are about to leave the easy life and begin the hardest part of life.

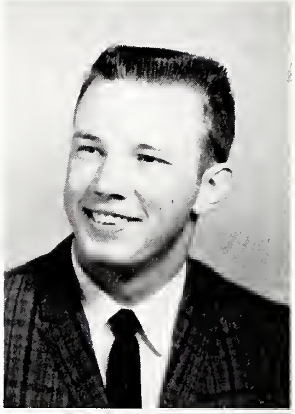
ELEANOR FRANCES WELLS
Ellen

I should always be content with what happens for I know that what God chooses is better than what I choose.

JEAN ANNE WERNER
Jean Anne

Happiness is multiplied when divided with others.

SENIORS



NANCY IRENE WETHINGTON
Nancy

A ship ought not to be held by one anchor, nor life by a single hope.

ROY EUGENE WETHINGTON
Gene

The actions of men are the best interpreters of their thoughts.

GLORIA ANN WHEELER
Gloria

The loss of a friend is like that of a limb; time may heal the anguish of the wound, but the loss cannot be repaired.

MARTHA ANNE WHEELER
Martha

Nothing that was worthy in the past departs; no truth or goodness realized by man ever dies, or can die.

PAULETTE EVE WHITAKER
Polly

Love is the key to all happiness.

PEGGY JOYCE WHITT
Peggy

Goodness does not more certainly make men happy than happiness makes them good.

JUDY CAROL WILLETT
Judy

When success is really wanted, nothing can stand in its way.

JOYCE STARR WILLIAMS
Joyce

No subtle readings, but a trusting love,
A hand to help, a heart to share in pain,
And over all the cooing of the dove.

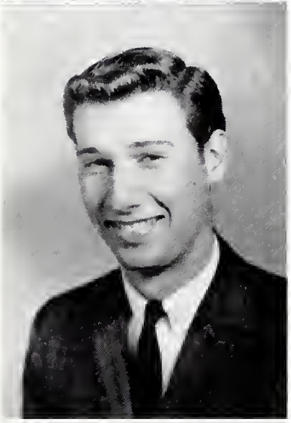
SENIORS

LARRY WAYNE WILLIAMS
Larry

What one man has, let no other change.

LAVANDA GAIL WILLIAMS
Gail

To love and to be loved is the greatest happiness of existence.

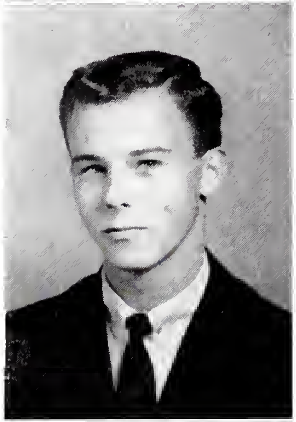


JAMES ROBERT WILLIAMSON
Jimmy

Friendliness is an important part in one's future.

VICTOR RAY WILLIAMSON
Ray

It is with our passions as it is with fire and water, they are good servants, but bad masters.

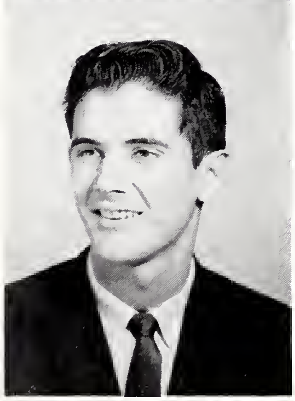


GAIL ROBERTS WILLIS
Gail

Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is the stuff life is made of.

CHARLES ROSS WILSON
Charlie

What a man thinks of himself determines, or rather indicates his fate.

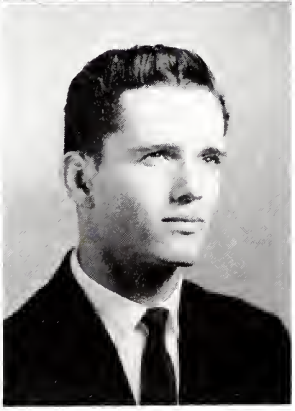


WILLIAM MARVIN WILSON, JR.
Bill

I am the master of my fate; I am the captain of my soul.

JOEL RAY WIMBERLEY
Joe

It is better to have loved and lost than not to have loved at all.



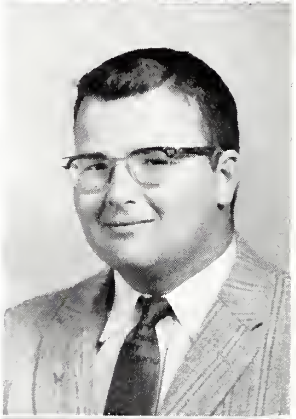
SENIORS

LYNDIA LOU WINDHAM
Linda

We are shaped and fashioned by what we love.

WALTER LEO WINSTON
Leo

Slow and steady wins the race.

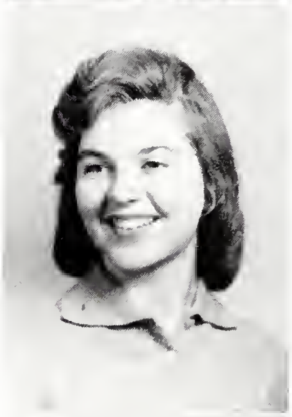


GLENDA BEA WOLFF
Glenda

One reaps what one sows and to sow kindness is the best of all investments.

ERNEST CLAIR WOOD
Ernest

It is not the man who has too little but the man who craves more, that is poor.



CYNTHIA ANN WOODLIEF
Cynthia

Above all, be true to thyself.

JANET MARIE WOODS
Janet

Great joys, like griefs, are silent.

JOHN BENJAMIN FRANKLIN WOODS, III
Bobo

Find the bright side of life and smile with it.

NANCY THOMAS WOODS
Nancy

Great gifts can be given by little hands. Since of all gifts, love is still the best.

SENIORS

JERRY FORREST WOODSIDE
Jerry

When my cue comes, call me and I will answer.

MILDRED JANNETTE WOODSIDE
Jennie

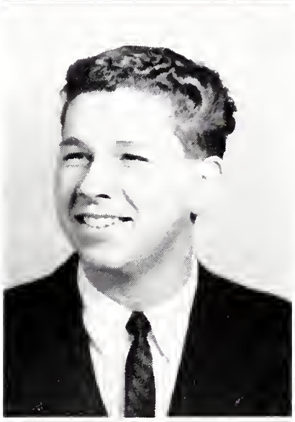
A loving heart is better and stronger than wisdom.

ALLEN AUMAN WOODY
Allen

This time, like all other times, is a very good one, if we but know what to do with it.

EDMOND DIXON WOODY, IV
Eddie

Know then thyself.

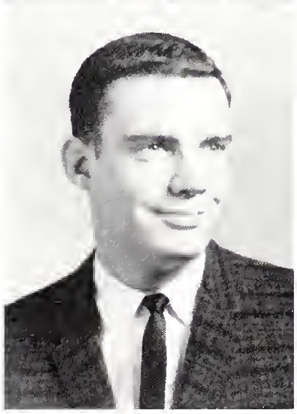


DOROTHEA ANNE WRIGHT
Anne

Genius does what it must, and talent does what it can.

GILMOUR ADAMS WYLIE
Gil

In this world a man must be either anvil or hammer.

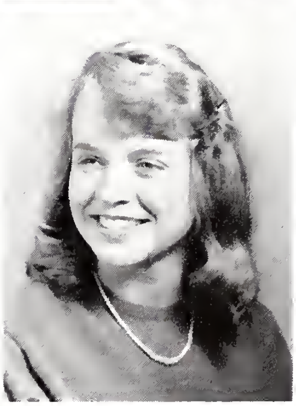


BETSY BEAVER YARBROUGH
Betsy

Always show your front to the world.

HELEN ANN YOHO
Helen

Good listeners are more successful than good talkers.



CANDACE YOUNG
Candace

It does not matter what happens to you; it matters how you react.

JONATHAN DAVID YOUNG, JR.
J. D.

Every man is the maker of his own fortune.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

1962

OFFICERS: Barry Smith, Nancy Jones, "Porgy" Jones, Jimmy Brame.

President	Jimmy Brame
Vice-President	Barry Smith
Secretary	Nancy Jones
Treasurer	"Porgy" Jones

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

"Well, hello Soph!" we finally yelled as we entered D.H.S. to begin our wonderful year as Juniors. Many memories of fun and hard work have packed this "in-between year."

Once again our Class President, Jimmy Brame, served us from peanut-pushing to winning the Vice-presidency of the North Carolina Student Council Congress. Lending helping hands were Barry Smith, Vice-president; Nancy Jones, Secretary; and Porgy Jones, Treasurer.

Leading our boys to victory, were six red and white junior gals this year. As we peddled our football tags, "Nauseate Northern" became the invigorating cry while we boosted school spirit and increased our treasury. Along with our many football boys, one of whom was co-captain, came much fine work, climaxed with Homecoming and Fall Festival. Thrilling activities brought fun and excitement topped by supporting Nancy Jones as our queen candidate.

Agony, worries, and fun, were the shouts as we planned, rehearsed, and presented our production of "Passport to Entertainment." We really went "Around the World" when we found that our Junior Talent Show left standing room only! Also our treasury was boosted as our production brought more money than ever before. That's really the Junior Class spirit!!

"Who are you taking to the Junior-Senior, Sophomore?" we proudly asked as we added the final touches, adjusted soft lights, and awaited the hour of the prom. Lovely dresses, pressed suits, and shining faces left many lingering memories, to end our wonderful Junior year at D.H.S., and to hopefully await the next.

Vice-President	Bill Griffin
Secretary	Lynn Foushee
Treasurer	Gwyn Foushee

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

"Fellow students, members of the faculty—and SOPHomores!" with this phrase ringing in our ears, we sophomores twisted our way through a rockin' year at D.H.S. that we will always remember . . .

The battle for the twist began at the sock hop given for sophs by the social committee during Orientation Week. We saved our class president, Dan Edwards, from peanut-pushing by winning the budget drive for the first time in DHS history. To get in the swing of things many of us joined the band, and various clubs, committees, and choral groups. On red and white day we became real D. H. S. students as all were seen in the school colors. Being the largest class, we naturally made the most noise at the games. With Candy Carr as our homecoming queen candidate, the decorated floats, and our winning pumpkin, the Fall Festival was a blast, even though there was no time for the games that Vice-president Bill Griffin had helped to plan. The treasurer of our class, either Lynn or Gwyn Foushee, collected money from our stationery sale; after the secretary, either Gwyn or Lynn, had distributed it for us sophs to sell.

With these vivid memories of our first year stamped firmly in our minds, we are looking forward to our second year at D.H.S. as the always persistent tag-selling middleman. "To the Junior-Senior we shall go—NEXT YEAR!!!"

WIND ENSEMBLE

If any class can claim the best years of the history of the D.H.S. Band, it is the Class of '62. Since Mr. Joseph Seerest accepted the post of band director in 1959, there has been a renaissance of the bands—Wind Ensemble, Varsity Band, and Marching Band.

As sophomores, many musicians in the Class of '62 were arriving at school at 7:30 every morning for the honor of playing in the newly formed wind ensemble, a group for the more advanced players. In the first spring of its existence, the wind ensemble donned its new red jackets and journeyed to Greensboro, where it proudly won the first "superior" in the State Band contest awarded to D.H.S. in many years. The group joyfully repeated its success last year and hopes to win its 3rd consecutive "I" this year.

With the formation of the Wind Ensemble, the Varsity Band came into being. During the last three years this group has emerged from the annual State Band Contest with "Excellent" ratings, which is above the average of the other high school bands that were entered in the same grade of music.

"The Redcoats are coming" was heard in New York City again when the famed D.H.S. Marching Band represented North Carolina in the Macy's Christmas Parade in the '62 Class' Junior and Senior years. This trip was publicized most by the band's selling Christmas candy to raise money for the trip. These exciting days in New York were a welcome reward for the Marching Band's hard work. Not only did this brave group of students march the Athletic field every morning at 7:30 during the football season, but they often "warmed-up" on the Durham County stadium field a good two hours before game time. A survey to find the most popular type of half-time show proved the Band's Drill Shows to be the favorite.

Thus, this year's seniors in the band will graduate with the memories of three years of rapid improvement from an unknown band to one of the best bands in North Carolina.

Those composers—their notes sound good—How about ours?!! . . . Ushering for concerts on Women's Campus . . . Oh, my feet! . . . The music was so good . . . Maybe someday I will play there . . . Will that point system be good for me? . . . Maybe our duet will give us a point or two . . . Hard work and then to say good-by . . . For summer's fun and college work . . . We seniors leave to you juniors our positions, . . . Trials . . . And fun . . . 'Tis hard to say good-by to Music Masters.

The D. H. S. Student Council started the '61-'62 school year by meeting in August to plan Orientation Week and polish school trophies. President, Stan Coble, attended the National Student Council Conference as the Vice-president of the North Carolina Student Council Congress to learn latest methods for leading a successful Student Council.

The second year of D. H. S. leadership class was marked with the beginning of the International Relations program. In this program D. H. S. exchange student, Anne-Brit Narum, became an honorary member of the student body as well as the Student Council.

The most successful Budget Drive that D. H. S. has had was led by Treasurer, Beth Phillips. Vice-president Sam Foushee worked diligently with the Student Directories while Secretary Elinor Trexler edited the new monthly system of Student Council reports.

The seven committees of the Student Council kept busy with sock hops, radio programs, new cafeteria plans for traffic, a new honor flag, American Education Week, Library Week, Courtesy Week, Clean-up Week, posters, and homeroom decoration contests.

With spring the Student Council sponsored student elections and as we put on our caps and gowns we pass our offices and duties on to the next Student Council.

Orientation Week a big success . . . Down with Sophs! . . . What if I sign up for a directory and never paid for it? . . . I don't need it; I know it by heart! . . . Much learned by all at program on parliamentary procedure . . . Master schedule plan erupts the meeting this afternoon. Wednesday is Tri-M, Music Masters, and French club day. Or is Tri-M on Tuesday and Spanish Club on Wednesday? . . . What a mess . . . Why join only two clubs?—No one will know my great leadership abilities . . . No more talking, let's get down to business . . . What business? The spring outing, OF COURSE!

THE HI-ROCKET

With a new adviser, a new staff, a new policy, and a new name plate, and a new size, the Hi-Rocket began the school year '61-'62 With all the confidence of experienced journalists and all the integrity of polished diplomats, the new editors began to write. With eight big pages for eight news-packed issues, the Hi-Rocket staff began a new year under the guidance of Miss Marion Warren.

Three sparkling issues and a Homecoming EXTRA brought raves from the student body. Both students and faculty acclaimed the professional style of journalism displayed in the first issues.

Of course, the Hi-Rocket had its troubles, too. Lack of finances lead the list that plagued the staff. The first week saw three bloody fights take place in the Hi-Rocket room. The rockin' parties were halted when staff members were caught doing the twist, communing with the spirits through a Quija Board, and playing a private version of Old Maid.

Ten delegates represented the Hi-Rocket at the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention in New York during March. Eight Senior delegates attended the SIPA at Washington and Lee.

MESSENGER

The beginning of school, brought new work to be done,
But we found that compiling the Messenger was lots of fun.
With Jennie, our able leader, standing there
We leaped through the year with time to spare.
Danelle and Alice H. asking for more ads
Hurried us home to beg our Dads.
All through the town with our new sales talk
Stores and businessmen, we did stalk.
After much talk and our ads all in,
The Messenger work could really begin.

Many a long day we did spend in debate
And never decided upon an idea as great.
Ann and Alice B. on errands they did run
Doing those things that couldn't be left undone.
The photographer came and the pictures were made
Doing a job that required much aid.
Bill and Linda R. filed the pixs equally well.
They did that difficult job extra swell.
After the pictures were sorted and all
Everyone said that they were having a ball.

LAYOUT STAFF
Row 1—Ann Crenshaw, Linda Weaver.
Row 2—Kylie Aiken, Martha Parks, Ellen Phillips, Beth Smith.

PHOTOGRAPHER
Ernest Robl

Once again we hear the question of the year
Which to everybody always sounds so dear.
When Linda W. and Karen say bravely, "We need some volunteers!"
The Beckys, Kitty, and Lindas always answered without fears
Work, work, and more work seemed to be our song
But through the year we moved right along.
Ellen's help this year was extra fine
On some occasions we had found spare time.
Working together we made friends in this year

Friends which we will continue to hold very dear.
All the clubs must be written up in style
And as you can guess this takes quite a while.
Carole, Lucy, Lynne, Jeannette, Linda H., and the rest
Proved through their work that they could meet the test.
Oh dear, here is something else that must be done.
Well, Deneise and Molly, you're the chosen one.
There was always the question, "Do you know how to type?"
Inevitably the answer was, "Yes, but not quite right."
A suggestion for our theme was Greek Gods,
And as we glanced around the room, there were plenty of nods.

LITERARY STAFF

Row 1—Lynn Gladstein, Carol Crowe, Jeanette Daily. Row 2—Linda Stein, Sharon Hogan, Elaine Holt, Molly Stapleford. Row 3—Linda Rhodes, Alice Brock, Karen Galbraith.

TYPING STAFF

CLOCKWISE: Becky Hobgood, Lucy Cobb, Becky Nash, Kitty Butler.

With this as our newly decided upon theme,
Nancy, Carol, and Dede almost had to scream.
But with our art work they pulled through,
Just like we knew they would do.
And there was, of course, Martha Parks,
Who always added her helpful remarks????
Jennie then said, "There is just one more thing to do.
So, Beth and Elaine, we once again call on you."
Kylie then came up with a helpful cue,
Helping us out of our latest pickle or stew.
The year almost over the fun really began

When off to New York went some of our clan.
In New York there was fun and more.
Home we headed to our old 007 door.
Leading us through this past year so grand,
Was someone who always lent a helpful hand.
From Miss Brown, we slowly learned
The knowledge we so needingly yearned.
Now that this year has so quickly past
The friends we made and the fun we had will surely last.
With hard work and a great deal of fun we've met the test
Which makes our Messenger the very best.

ART STAFF

CLOCKWISE: Linda Samfield, Carol Thomas, Nancy Anderson, Dennie Thompson, Dede O'Briant.

L&M

Expect more, get Lots More from L&M—more body in the blend, more flavor in the smoke, more taste through the filter.

CHESTERFIELD

Enjoy all the pleasure of 21 great tobaccos in these 20 wonderful smokes. If you smoke for pleasure, not just from habit, you'll like Chesterfield.

OASIS

They smoke so cool, taste so rich—because the basis for Oasis is tobacco, the forgotten flavor in other menthol cigarettes.
